

Percent Change in Crop

This map demonstrates the change in the type of crop from 2015 to 2023 for each county in Georgia, and grouped by ecological region.

The most change in type of crop takes place in the southern part of the state. The highest rates of change (~60%) occur in the River Valley and Southwest Georgia regions.

